16. Temporary, part-time or guest Teachers, for any period not exceeding one year, shall be appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the concerned Departmental Committee. Such recommendation shall be forwarded by the Head of the Department to the Vice-Chancellor.

17. Appointment of Officers:

All Officers referred to in Clause (vii) of Section 7 of the MBB University Act, 2015, shall except as may otherwise be directed by the Syndicate, be whole-time Officers and shall be appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of a Standing Committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman, Deans of Faculties and two persons not holding any post of profit in the University nominated by the Syndicate in this behalf from amongst its own members:

Provided that in the case of temporary appointments for any period not exceeding six months, appointments in the posts of such Officers may be made by the Vice-Chancellor in his discretion without any recommendation referred to above.

18. Qualifications necessary for appointment to the posts of Officers shall be such as may be determined by the Syndicate in consultation with the State Government, and in accordance with the norms, prescribed by the UGC, as the case may be, from time to time.

19. Appointment of other Employees:

(1) Appointment to the posts of Group C and Group D employees is made by the Syndicate on the recommendation of a Standing Committee to be constituted by the Syndicate from time to time.

(2) Qualifications necessary for the appointment to posts of different categories of employees referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be determined by the Syndicate.

20. Probation:

Appointments to substantive posts of whole-time Teachers, Officers referred to in Ordinance/ Statute and other employees of the University shall ordinarily be made on probation for a period of one year which may be extended for one more year and shall be subject to confirmation on approved service on the expiry of the period of probation.

21. Scales of Pay of Teachers:

Scales of pay of different categories of Teachers of the University shall be such as may be determined by the Syndicate from time to time in accordance with the UGC scales and with concurrences from the State Government.

22. Qualification:

The qualifications for the post of Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor shall be such as may be prescribed by the University Grants Commission / MHRD / AICTE / other appropriate body / and approved by the State Government from time to time.

23. Career Advancement Scheme of Teachers:

The Career Advancement Schemes as provided for by the UGC / MHRD / AICTE / and approved by the State Government from time to time shall be applicable to the Teacher of the University. The details of scheme, however, shall be notified by the University.

24. Scales of Pay of Officers and Employees:

Save as otherwise provided elsewhere in the Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances the scales of pay of the Officers and different categories of employees referred to in Ordinance 17 shall be such as may be determined by the Syndicate from time to time with the approval of the State Government, and in accordance with the UGC scales, as the case may be.

25. Higher Initial Pay in Certain Cases:

If, in special circumstances to be recorded, the appointing authority considers it necessary so to do, it may grant to any Teacher, Officer or other employees of the University, a higher initial pay within the relevant scale:

Provided that in no case shall a higher initial pay be granted without considering the view of the Finance Committee.

26. Allowances:

Teachers, Officers and other Employees of the University shall be entitled, in addition to their salary including special pay, if any, to such allowances as the Syndicate may, from time to time, determine, in accordance with the State Government norms.

27. Retirement of Teachers:

Subject to provisions of the Act, Statutes, Regulations and approval of the State Government, a whole-time Teacher of the University enjoying University Grants Commission scale of pay shall retire on attaining the age as recommended by the UGC and approved by the State Government.

28. Re-employment of Teachers:

The Syndicate may give re-employment to a Teacher of the University for a limited period beyond the age of his/her retirement considering his/ her academic activities particularly during the last 5 years preceding the date of his/ her superannuation, supported by relevant documents.

29. On receipt of such documents etc. subject to the guidelines of UGC and as approved by the State Government, the Syndicate shall form a Screening Committee with the following members and consider the relevant documents and the service record of the Teacher concerned :-

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor,
- (b) the Dean of the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate Studies concerned, if any,
- (c) one expert in the field of specialisation of the Teacher concerned to be nominated by the Chancellor, and,
- (d) two experts in the field of specialisation of the Teacher concerned to be nominated by the Syndicate.

30. Such period of re-employment shall initially be for a period of two years and subsequently for a period of one year or less.

In no case such re-employment shall be given beyond the age as recommended by the UGC and approved by the State Government.

31. The recommendations of the Screening Committee regarding re-employment shall be made on the basis of the performance of the Teacher concerned as a Teacher and/ or quality of research papers as or books produced by him. The recommendations should also justify that he/ she cannot be replaced immediately of his/ her continued availability which will be indispensable for existing academic programme.

32. Pay shall be fixed in accordance with the normal rule applicable to the employees of the State Government under which such pay plus pension and other benefits do not exceed the last pay drawn at any stage.
33. Re-employment shall be made only in exceptional cases with sufficient justification as indicated in Ordinance 31 and subject to any law in force.
34. No Teacher re-employed after attaining the age of superannuation shall hold appointment as Head of Department or Dean of Faculty or any other such administrative position. He/ she, however, may be a member of the Departmental Committee and/ or Board of studies of the Department from where the Teacher concerned has superannuated. The Teacher shall not have the right to cast his vote in the Departmental Committee and/ or Board of Studies.
35. Retirement of Officers and Employees of the University:
Subject to provisions of the Act, Statutes, Regulations and approval of the State Government, a whole-time Officer of the University enjoying University Grants Commission scale of pay shall retire on attaining the age as recommended by the UGC and approved by the State Government.
36. Terms and Conditions of Service:
The terms and conditions of the service, including leave, of all Teachers, Officers and other employees of the University, shall be such as may be prescribed by Statutes.
Provided that when the terms and conditions of service governing any permanent appointee are altered, amended or repealed such an appointee shall be given the option to come under the new rules or to remain under the old rules.
37. Disciplinary Action:
Teachers, Officers and other employees of the University shall be subject to such "Disciplinary Rules" as has been prescribed by Statutes for the purpose.
38. Supplementary Employment:
Save as hereinafter otherwise provided, no whole-time Teacher, Officer or other employee of the University shall be entitled to accept, with or without remuneration, any employment, engagement or continuing commitment involving his services, in addition to his normal work in the University, except with the previous permission in writing of the appointing authority.
39. A Teacher of the University may, with the written permission of the Vice-Chancellor, undertake any work pertaining to the sphere of his special branch of learning where such work is of a nature likely to add to his experience as a specialist in such branch of learning and to bring credit to the University:
Provided that:
(1) application for permission to engage in such work shall be made in writing indicating the time supposed to be involved in the work and the terms and conditions under which it is to be carried out and shall be addressed to the Vice-Chancellor and be forwarded by the HOD;
(2) such work shall not interfere with the regular performance of the responsibilities of the Teacher concerned in the University.
(3) the maximum time to be devoted by the Teacher concerned in such work shall not exceed one third of the time covered by his hours of duty in connection with his regular work in the University.

40. Any person contravening the provisions of Paragraph (1) or Paragraph (2) of Ordinance 39 shall be liable to disciplinary action.
- 41. Inventions and Discoveries by the Teachers of the University:
If any Teacher of the University makes any invention or discovery of any process in the laboratory or workshop of the University and the University is of opinion that the Government should be moved for the grant of patent of such invention or process, the University shall, after getting an assignment from the Teacher concerned, take steps for securing such grant of patent and the cost involved therein shall be borne by the University.
42. Any royalty, emolument, remuneration or income accrued from the sale of commercial exploitation of any such grant or patent shall be received by the University and the University shall pay seventy (70) percent thereof to the Teacher concerned:
Provided that where the expenditure incurred in regard to such invention or process is, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, the University shall be entitled to recover the entire cost involved before paying any portion of the royalty, emolument, remuneration or income, as the case may be, to the Teacher concerned.
43. If in any such case, the University does not intend to move the Government for the grant of a patent, the Teacher concerned may, with the permission of the Syndicate, apply for a patent solely in his own name:
Provided that before doing so he shall pay to the University the entire sum spent by the University in connection with the invention or process.
- 44. Duties of Officers and other Employees:
Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, the duties of Officers and other employees, not being Teachers, of the University shall be such as may be assigned to them by their immediate superiors in office, from time to time.

CHAPTER VII

DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS OF THE TEACHERS OF THE UNIVERSITY INCLUDING THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT

[Vide Section 49 Clause (xii) of the Act]

45. The general functions of a Teacher (either whole-time or part-time) of the University shall be:
- (1) to give instruction in accordance with the curriculum and time-table for the time being in force;
  - (2) to advise students in matters relating to their courses of study and other matters relevant thereto;
  - (3) to work co-operatively with the Department concerned in the conduct of instruction and research so as to enhance the good name and reputation of the University as an outstanding centre for teaching and advancement of learning;
  - (4) to keep abreast of the current literature in his sphere of learning and to impart knowledge to and guide students in accordance therewith;
  - (5) to give to the Board of Studies and the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate Studies concerned, or the Syndicate, such advice as may be required by them with regard to any matter relating to his sphere of learning;

- (6) to give advice and suggestions to the Librarian regarding purchase and preservation of books, manuscripts, maps or other resources pertaining to his sphere of learning in the Library;
- (7) to serve the University in connection with the conduct of examinations including supervision and invigilation;
- (8) to take such part in the administrative and organisational work of the University by serving on Committees or Bodies or by individual consultation as may be required by the competent authority.

46. Duties of Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors:

It shall be the duty and responsibility of every Professor or Associate Professor/Assistant Professor to deliver lectures to conduct classes, to engage in research work, to supervise and assist students who are engaged in research work in his sphere of learning, to undertake such tutorial work as may be required by the Head of the Department concerned and to do such other things, consistent with his status, as he may, from time to time, be required to do.

47. Workload:

The workload of the Teachers in full employment should not be less than 40 hours a week for 30 working weeks (180 teaching days) in an academic year. It should be necessary for the Teacher to be available for at least 5 hours daily in the University. Direct teaching-learning process hours should be as follows:

Assistant Professor	16 hours per week.
Associate Professor and Professor	14 hours per week.

48. A relaxation of two hours in the workload may, however, be given to Professors who are actively involved in extension activities and administration. A minimum of 6 hours per week may have to be allocated for research activities of a Teacher.

49. Part-time Teachers shall deliver not less than four lectures a week.

50. The tutorial work may be distributed by the Head of the Department concerned among the Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors in such manner as he/ she may consider fit.

51. Nature of Duties:

Every Teacher shall undertake to take such part in the activities and development of the University and perform duties related to teaching, research, examination of students, and/or any other official duties assigned to them by the Vice-Chancellor, Dean of the Faculty or Head of the Department.

52. A Teacher who is assigned work relating to teaching or research in any Department, other than his/ her, within the Department or outside the Department, shall not be entitled to extra remuneration.

53. Every Teacher of the University shall, at the beginning of each semester, prepare for his students a list of topics to be taught by him/ her during the semester together with a bibliography relating to them, and shall forward a copy thereof to the Vice-Chancellor.

54. Head of the Department:

In every teaching department of the University there shall be a Head of the Department, who shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor by rotation in order of seniority from amongst the whole-time University Teachers, not below the rank of an Associate Professor.

Provided that, if in any department there is no Professor or Associate Professor, the senior most Assistant Professor shall work as In-Charge of the Department and shall discharge all functions and duties of the Head of the Department.

55. In a University teaching department, where there are Professors and Associate Professors, all Professors shall be deemed to be senior in rank to Associate Professor.
56. The appointment of a Head of the Department by the Vice-Chancellor shall be reported to the Syndicate.
57. (1) A Head of the Department shall hold office for a period of two years from the date on which he assumes his charge as Head of the Department.
(2) The Head of the Department may resign from his office by writing under his hand and seal, to the Vice-Chancellor.
(3) The procedure of rotation, as prescribed above, shall apply equally in the case of a vacancy in the office of the Head of the Department caused due to the resignation or release of an incumbent from the service of the University or by the grant of long term leave in his favour, or due to any other reason beyond one's control.
(4) If there is a temporary vacancy in the office of the Head of the Department, the next senior most Teachers in the department shall be appointed to act as the Head of the Department for the period of such temporary vacancy.
58. The Head of every Department shall act under the general supervision and control of the Vice-Chancellor, subject to delegation of such power to an Officer of the University and his duties and functions shall be to administer the academic affairs of the department concerned, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Regulations, so that the decisions which may be relevant to his department are promptly complied with. He/ she shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/ her by the Vice-Chancellor or any other competent authority of the University.
59. The Head of the Department shall act as link between the University and the Department, so far as management of academic affairs of the Department is concerned. Such functions should always be carried out in consultation with the Departmental Committee. In an emergent situation he/ she may act on his/ her own but the matter must be reported to the Departmental Committee and be approved by the same in its next meeting.

CHAPTER VIII

APPOINTMENT, DUTIES AND REMUNERATION OF EXAMINERS ETC.

[Vide Section 49, Clause (xiv) of the Act]

60. Board of Examiners:

- (1) Subject to the general control and supervision of the Syndicate, there shall be a Board of Examiners consisting of such number of Examiners and other members as the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate Studies concerned may appoint in respect of every examination for a degree, diploma or certificate in a course of Post-Graduate Studies.
- (2) Examiners and other members of the Board shall be appointed on the recommendation of the Board of Studies concerned. In case there is no such Board of Studies, such Examiners and other members of the Board shall be appointed by the Controller of Examinations in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor.

- (3) The Head of the Department concerned or, where there is no Head of the Department, such person as may be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be the Chairman of the Board, and shall preside at every meeting of the Board.
- (4) The Board shall meet on such dates and at such times and places as may be fixed by the Chairman. The Board shall consider the results of the examination for which it is appointed and make recommendation in respect of the examination to the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate Studies concerned.

61. Head Examiners, Paper-Setters, etc.

In respect of every examination for a degree, diploma or certificate in a course of Under-Graduate Studies, there shall be Head Examiners, Examiners, Paper-Setters, Scrutinisers, Co-ordinators, Convenors, Moderators, Tabulators and such other persons as may be required during the process of examination, who shall, on the recommendation of the Board of Studies concerned and subject to general supervision of the Syndicate, be appointed by the respective Board of Undergraduate Studies.

62. Number of Examiners and Cancellation of Appointment of Examiners:

- (1) The number of Examiners, Scrutinisers or members of the Board of Examiners to be appointed in each instance shall be determined by the appointing authority concerned.
- (2) The appointment of any Examiner or other member of a Board of Examiners referred to in Ordinance 60 or of an Examiner or Scrutiniser referred to in Ordinance 61 may, at any time, be cancelled by the appointing authority, if it thinks fit to do so.

63. Special Provision in the case of Inordinate Delay:

Subject to delegation of such power by Syndicate as it may consider fit and notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in these Ordinances, in the cases where, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, as the case may be, there is inordinate delay on the part of any Examiner, Head Examiner or Scrutiniser to complete the work assigned to him, the Vice-Chancellor may without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph (2) of Ordinance 62:

- (1) in the case of Paper-Setter or Moderator, cancel his appointment as such and appoint another person as the Paper-Setter or Moderator in his place;
- (2) in the case of any other Head Examiner, Examiner or Scrutiniser, cancel his appointment and take back from him the answer-papers assigned to him and appoint another Examiner or Scrutiniser in his place and reassign such answer-papers to such freshly appointed Examiner or Scrutiniser, as the case may be.

64. List of Persons Eligible for Appointment as Examiners:

- (1) The Controller of Examinations shall annually prepare and maintain lists of persons eligible for serving as Examiners in respect of different examinations of the University referred to in Ordinance 61.

Provided that persons with less than three years' teaching experience in a College or Colleges shall not ordinarily be eligible for inclusion in any such list.

- (2) At the beginning of each academic session, the Controller of Examinations will prepare a list of Examiners for each subject. He/she obtain such names from the Head of the College or Institution. The list, prepared subject wise, must contain the following information:
  - (a) Name of the Examiner:
  - (b) Age:
  - (c) Qualifications including degrees, diplomas or certificates and dates thereof:
  - (d) Present post and the date of appointment:

- (e) The class and the subject in which the applicant imparts instruction or guides research:
  - (f) Years of experience, if any, as a Teacher of a College or Colleges:
  - (g) Previous appointment, if any, as Examiner with year of appointment and other particulars:
  - (h) Any other special qualifications:
- (3) The Board of Studies concerned or, where there is no Board of Studies, the Vice-Chancellor, shall review the lists referred to in Clause (1) in respect of relevant fields of studies and make, to the appropriate appointing authorities, recommendations for appointment.

65. Duties and Responsibilities of Examiners and Scrutinisers:

- (1) Examiners shall ordinarily have the following duties and responsibilities, namely:
- (a) in the case of Paper-Setters, to set the papers for the respective examinations in accordance with the regulations and with the syllabus and the textbooks prescribed and the established standards;
  - (b) in the case of Moderators, to moderate the respective question papers so that they conform to regulations, particularly, to the syllabus and the text-books prescribed and the established standards;
  - (c) in the case of a Head Examiner, where there is one-
    - (i) to set the standard of valuation of answer-papers,
    - (ii) to supervise the valuation of answer-papers and ensure uniformity of the standard of marking, by issuing written instructions in detail to Examiners working under him and by systematic sampling of at least 5 percent of the answer-papers and by revising the markings wherever necessary,
    - (iii) to arrange for scrutiny of answer-papers so as to ensure that each question is marked and that the totals are correctly calculated and entered into the mark sheets,
    - (iv) to report to the Faculty Council for Post-Graduate Studies or the Council for Under-Graduate Studies concerned, the results of examination and the work of Examiners and Scrutinisers,
    - (v) to report about the performance of candidates and similar other matters connected with the examinations,
